

Professional LGV Training Instructor

1st Approach Transport is a well-established elite privately owned LGV Training School, located in Peterborough, UK. Since launching back in 1989, we have achieved an outstanding reputable and continuous high-performance status for providing quality driver training, accommodating all categories. We are renowned for using “best in class” vehicles, providing one-on-one training, resulting in year-on-year high test pass ratios, which ultimately has contributed to our continued success over the last three decades.

Having ridden the waves of the unforeseen COVID 19, we are now focussing on the future and in a unique position to appoint two additional professional LGV training instructors to join us, practical experience and the right cultural fit is critical for these hires. We fully appreciate the world has changed over the past 18 months, impacting many talented individuals, therefore we are open to consider the following:

- LGV Training Instructors wanting to join a small elite professional company and be part of a family culture, whilst helping to carve out the future growth and continued success of the business
- LGV Training Instructors wanting to work flexi hours / part-time (one week on / one week off or five days per week Monday to Friday alternatively five days Wednesday to Sunday)
- Experienced semi-retired LGV Training Instructors wanting to work on an ad-hoc basis (minimum five days consecutively to provide continuity of training to the trainee)
- Experienced LGV Drivers with a minimum of five years practical experience, who have a strong desire to become a LGV Training Instructor and would like to join a small established training school
- Ex Forces personnel with LGV driving experience wishing to pursue a new career in LGV Training

Our main desire is to ensure we have the unique combination of the right experience and dedication, thus making the appointments a success and creating longevity in the journey together. The personality traits we are ideally seeking the professional LGV Training Instructors to demonstrate are as follows:

- Strong self-discipline and self-motivation, individuals who thrive on providing high quality services
- Exceptional good communicator, known for demonstrating a balanced and calm persona, in-order to provide confidence, guidance, and support to a broad spectrum of diverse trainees
- Has a natural affinity to being “Customer Centric”, always willing to go the extra mile to protect the reputation of the business
- Demonstrates a committed, respectful, loyal personality, individuals who commercially appreciates the investment, care and upkeep of the training vehicles, premises business protocol and customer engagement
- Hands-on flexible team players, individuals who able to contribute to all parts of the business, irrelevant of core responsibilities

We appreciate our requirements are high and we are searching for a “needle in a haystack”, however it is pivotal to the business that we ensure the new LGV Training Instructors area successful, thus providing continuity and longevity with the business. We aim to ensure our investment of these appointments is a win-win scenario for all parties involved.

Should working for us prove of interest, we would love to hear from you and in the first instance if you could kindly submit your C.V with a covering email to Claire Cutts at info@1stapproachtransport.co.uk this would be much appreciated. The initial screening process would be an informal conference call with one of the main shareholders. We look forward to hearing from you. All interested parties will be treated with the utmost respect and confidentiality will be maintained throughout.
